

NAME

Giancarlo Montani, DipOptom, FBCLA, FAAO, FEAOO

Speciality & place of work

Consultant educator and researcher in contact and ophthalmic lenses and dry eye

Professor at the University of Salento, Lecce

Scientific Director at CeRCA Lab, Lecce

Ambassador of International Myopia Institute

Biography

Giancarlo Montani is Involved in Optometry education since 1988, he has been Department Head of the Contact Lens Division at the Santa Chiara University Medical Centre in Pisa, Italy until 2004. In 2007 Professor Giancarlo Montani has co-founded the Centre for contact lens research of the University of Salento. Giancarlo Montani also works in private practice. He has published numerous articles in optometric journals and has been invited as lecturer to several national and international Optometry Congresses. He is Fellow of the British Contact Lens Association, American Academy of Optometry and European Academy of Optics and Optometry and Ambassador of International Myopia Institute.